CMHC Conducts Rental and Condominium Surveys in BC

CANADA MORTGAGE AND HOUSING CORPORATION

BC Rental Market Surveys

April and October

If you are an apartment owner or manager, you may be contacted in April and October to participate in CMHC's bi-annual Rental Market Surveys. You will be asked to provide data on key rental market indicators, such as availability and vacancy rates and rents. Your participation is vital to ensuring CMHC produces comprehensive information on the rental market here in B.C. Privacy and confidentiality will be protected as only overall data is published.

BC Condominium Vacancy Survey

August Through September

If you also own or manage a condominium in Vancouver or Victoria, you may be contacted to participate in our annual Condominium Vacancy Survey in September. You will be asked to provide information such as the number of rental units, vacant rental units and units for sale. Your participation is vital to ensuring CMHC produces comprehensive information on the secondary rental market in B.C. Privacy and confidentiality will be protected as only overall data is published.

Enhance Your Decision Making With CMHC's Rental Market Reports

Our data will provide you with:

- Provincial and local rental market information for urban centres with populations of over 10,000 in a province.
- Average rents and the rate of change at the sub-market level.
- Average vacancy, availability rates, rents and forecasts on 28 major urban centres.
- The latest trends in vacancy and availability rates.
- Secondary rental market data including the number of privately-owned condominiums, single and semi detached homes, duplex units and accessory suites that are rented (fall survey in select centres).
